Overview

This webcast will investigate and discuss the following questions:

- How can we recruit and retain diverse librarians?
- How can we create inclusive library environments in which all types of employees and learners feel welcome and involved?
- How do we foster an environment within our profession to include representatives of all of our constituencies?
- How do our practices in libraries reflect the diverse nature of our communities?

Speakers:

Mary Evangeliste, Director of User Services & Outreach at Gettysburg College

Dr. Teresa Y. Neely, Associate Professor and Director, Access Services, University Libraries, University of New Mexico

Dr. Karen E. Downing, Foundation and Grants Librarian at the University of Michigan
