

Utah Health Sciences Library Consortium Meeting Minutes
October 22, 2007
Shriner's Hospital

Professional Development (noon-1:00 p.m.) John Bramble and Emily Eresuma discussed their progress with organizing an educational event to address copyright issues for the consortium. The plan is to invite Rita Reusch, a copyright expert and Director of the Quinney Law Library, to speak at a professional development session in January. UHSLC members will have an opportunity to ask questions at that time.

Attendees:

Sharon Dennis, Sandy Coletti, Emily Eresuma, Joan Stoddart, Jennie Morris, Jeanne Le Ber, Jennifer DeBerg, Jason Youngstrom, Lynda Vanwagoner, Tauna Toole, Marilyn Schwartz, Lynne Gabrish, Lynn Wilson, Kirk Davis, John Bramble, Valeri Craige

Agenda

1. Jeanne sent out the minutes from the August meeting. The minutes are posted to the website at http://library.med.utah.edu/uhscl/minutes/2007_Aug_6_minutes_UHSLC.pdf
2. Treasurer's Update:
 - a. The current balance is 6,498.34. Funds will be allocated to buy food for the Christmas party and to allow Marilyn to pay for the Utah Graduate School Fair Week conference registration.
3. Promoting Emporia State's Library School program and development of a Health Sciences Librarianship program for the Utah cohort.
 - a. A letter will be sent to Adrienne Juarez regarding UHSLC's interest in providing a number of supplemental programs and activities that will promote and enhance the Health Sciences Librarian course already offered through Emporia. Some ideas included tours of the Eccles library, or clinical libraries around the Salt Lake valley; promoting the "Join the Healthcare Team" video produced by MLA; providing opportunities for health Sciences Library internships; and perhaps creating a CE course.

Valeri will write the letter and send it to Adrienne before the next UHSLC meeting.

4. Review of UHSLC Goals and Objectives
