College of DuPage Teleconference
Hosted by the Spencer S. Eccles Health Sciences Library
Paid for by the Utah State Library Division

WHAT: Serving Immigrant Populations
WHEN: Friday, April 7, 2006
TIME: 10:00-Noon
WHERE: Eccles Library, History of Medicine Room, upper level
RSVP: Contact Jeanne Le Ber at 801-585-6744 or jeannele@lib.med.utah.edu

Overview
This teleconference begins with a look at the history of immigrants and libraries, and examines how to assess the needs of your community’s immigrant population, including English as a Second Language materials, legal issues, work issues, and bi-lingual library resources.

Panelists:
Bill Erbes, Assistant Director of the Bensenville Community Public Library District
Rohini Bokka, Manager of Technical Services, Naperville (Illinois) Public Library
Vandella Brown, Diversity Services Manager, Illinois State Library
Tammy Deboyn, Director, Beardstown Houston Public Library, Beardstown, Illinois
Loida Garcia-Febo, Spanish Language Collections/Cultural Arts Manager, New Americans Program, Borough of Queens Public Library, Jamaica, New York
Carol Fox, ESL Coordinator, College of DuPage, Glen Ellyn, Illinois
Hector Marino, Board of Directors of REFORMA, the United States Association to Promote Library Services to the Spanish Speaking
Lester Park, Community Services Librarian, Bensenville Community Public Library District
Jill Rodriguez, Director, Bensenville (Illinois) Community Public Library District
Gary Sarpy, Adult Education Coordinator, Gads Hill Center, Chicago, Illinois
Marc Thomas, Information Services Manager, Northwestern Illinois Planning Commission
Randi Weiss, Coordinator of PolyTalk in Urbana, Illinois

For more information, program outline, discussion questions, and selected readings visit the website at http://www.dupagepress.com/COD/index.php?id=985

Questions?
Contact Jeanne Le Ber
801-585-6744
jeannele@lib.med.utah.edu