College of DuPage Teleconference

Hosted by the
Spencer S. Eccles Health Sciences Library
Paid for by the
Utah State Library Division

WHAT: Always a River, Sometimes a Library

WHEN: Friday, February 3, 2006

TIME: 10:00-11:30 A.M.

WHERE: Eccles Health Sciences Library; History of Medicine Room, upper level

RSVP: Contact Jeanne Le Ber at 801-585-6744 or jeannele@lib.med.utah.edu

Overview
Rick Anderson explores the three ways the library profession is broken, and the four ways to fix it. He uses the Mississippi River as a metaphor for patron behavior, and gives us new and useful ways to think about our patrons.

Speaker:
Rick Anderson earned his B.S. and M.L.I.S. degrees at Brigham Young University. Before assuming his current position as Director of Resource Acquisition at the University of Nevada, Reno, he worked as a bibliographer for Yankee Book Peddler, Inc., as Head Acquisitions Librarian for the University of North Carolina, Greensboro and as Electronic Resources and Serials Coordinator at Nevada. He serves on the editorial boards of ACQNET, Serials and Library Collections, Acquisitions and Technical Services and edits the Sound Recording Reviews column for Notes (the quarterly journal of the Music Library Association).
