

Jimmy Miklavcic is Executive Director of Another Language (<http://www.anotherlanguage.org/>). Together with Artistic Director, Beth Miklavcic they have created five InterPlay projects that are described as live, distributed, surreal cinematic events.

A mixture of computer science, visual arts, music composition, acting, and multimedia experience textures Jimmy's artistic background. In 1972, he began his visual arts studies at Richard Stockton College of New Jersey. Focusing mainly on painting, he also became involved in other artists' projects in theater, performance art, and music. In 1978 he continued his studies in the Performing Arts, including acting, technical theatre and electronic music at Cabrillo Community College, Aptos CA. Shortly after arriving in Salt Lake City, Utah, Jimmy studied computer science at the University of Utah. He graduated in 1987 with a BS in Computer Science. Jimmy is currently the Multimedia Specialist for the Center for High Performance Computing Center and Adjunct Assistant Professor in the Department of Communications at the University of Utah

He has been awarded the 1995 Salt Lake City Mayor's Artists Award for the Performing Arts along with his wife, Beth Miklavcic and has appeared in television and cinema that now includes an appearance on the USA Network series, Cover Me and the feature film Wieners.

Jimmy Miklavcic, Multimedia Specialist
University Of Utah
Center for High Perform Computing
155 South 1452 East Rm 405
Salt Lake City, UT 84112-0190
Office: 801.585.9335
Fax: 801.585.5366
Jimmy.Miklavcic@utah.edu